"I want to conservatively spend our tax dollars, eliminate waste, and bring sound business ideas to local government."

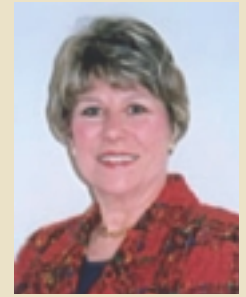

— ED LANE

It's time for a new direction.

Ed Lane
12TH DISTRICT COUNCIL

Vote for Ed Lane Nov. 2nd

Mayor Teresa Isaac and Gloria Martin have both strongly advocated and orchestrated the forcible takeover of the Kentucky American Water Company.

SPENDING MULTI-MILLIONS ON LAWYERS

Isaac's and Martin's actions in the condemnation of the water company have committed Lexington taxpayers to spend multi-millions to fix the lawsuit mess they created.

As the lawyers get richer and your tax dollars are wasted, urgent issues facing our community are not being addressed by the Urban Council.

BETTER USES FOR TAXPAYER DOLLARS

Instead of paying Lawyers, Ed Lane believes our money would be better spent for:

- Fair pay for public safety employees;
- Synchronized traffic controls for Lexington's roads;
- Repairs to county roads and public buildings;
- Upgrading the government's obsolete financial controls and accounting system;
- Promoting economic development;
- Adding money to the "rainy day" emergency fund;
- Upgrading neighborhood parks.

Lexington deserves quality government and elected leaders that work together to solve problems and create opportunities.

Vote for Ed Lane on November 2.
