a new direction

“It’s time for a new direction

on the Urban County Council.

I want to serve our community by bringing sound business ideas to local government.”

— ED LANE

Ed Lane
12TH DISTRICT COUNCIL

A “Citizen Legislator”

Ed Lane is not a politician. As a “citizen legislator,” he seeks to bring more than two decades of business experience to local government. His historical perspective, passion for the Bluegrass, and business expertise will help the Urban County Council solve the critical issues facing Lexington.

ED LANE sees important issues that need to be addressed:

- Conservatively spending our tax dollars, eliminating waste, and managing the city’s budget like a business.
- Promoting economic development, technology and agribusiness — in concert with Commerce Lexington — and creating quality employment opportunities for our citizens and children
- Paying fair compensation to all employees of our local government.
