Dear Peter:

I am sending you this personal note about Ed Lane who is running from the 12th District for the Lexington/Fayette Urban County Council. The 12th District contains most of the horse farms and agricultural property in Fayette County.

Ed is the publisher of The Lane Report and the CEO of Lane Consultants, Inc., a commercial real estate services firm. He has operated his company in Lexington for over 20 years, is very knowledgeable about our community, has for many years been highly supportive of agribusiness and the equine industry, and will bring sound business ideas to local government. A fact sheet on his campaign is enclosed.

I rarely endorse candidates, but I believe Ed Lane will be able to work effectively with other council members to resolve many of the problems facing our community.

For his campaign to be successful Ed needs our support. Your vote on May 18th and financial support would be appreciated. Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,
